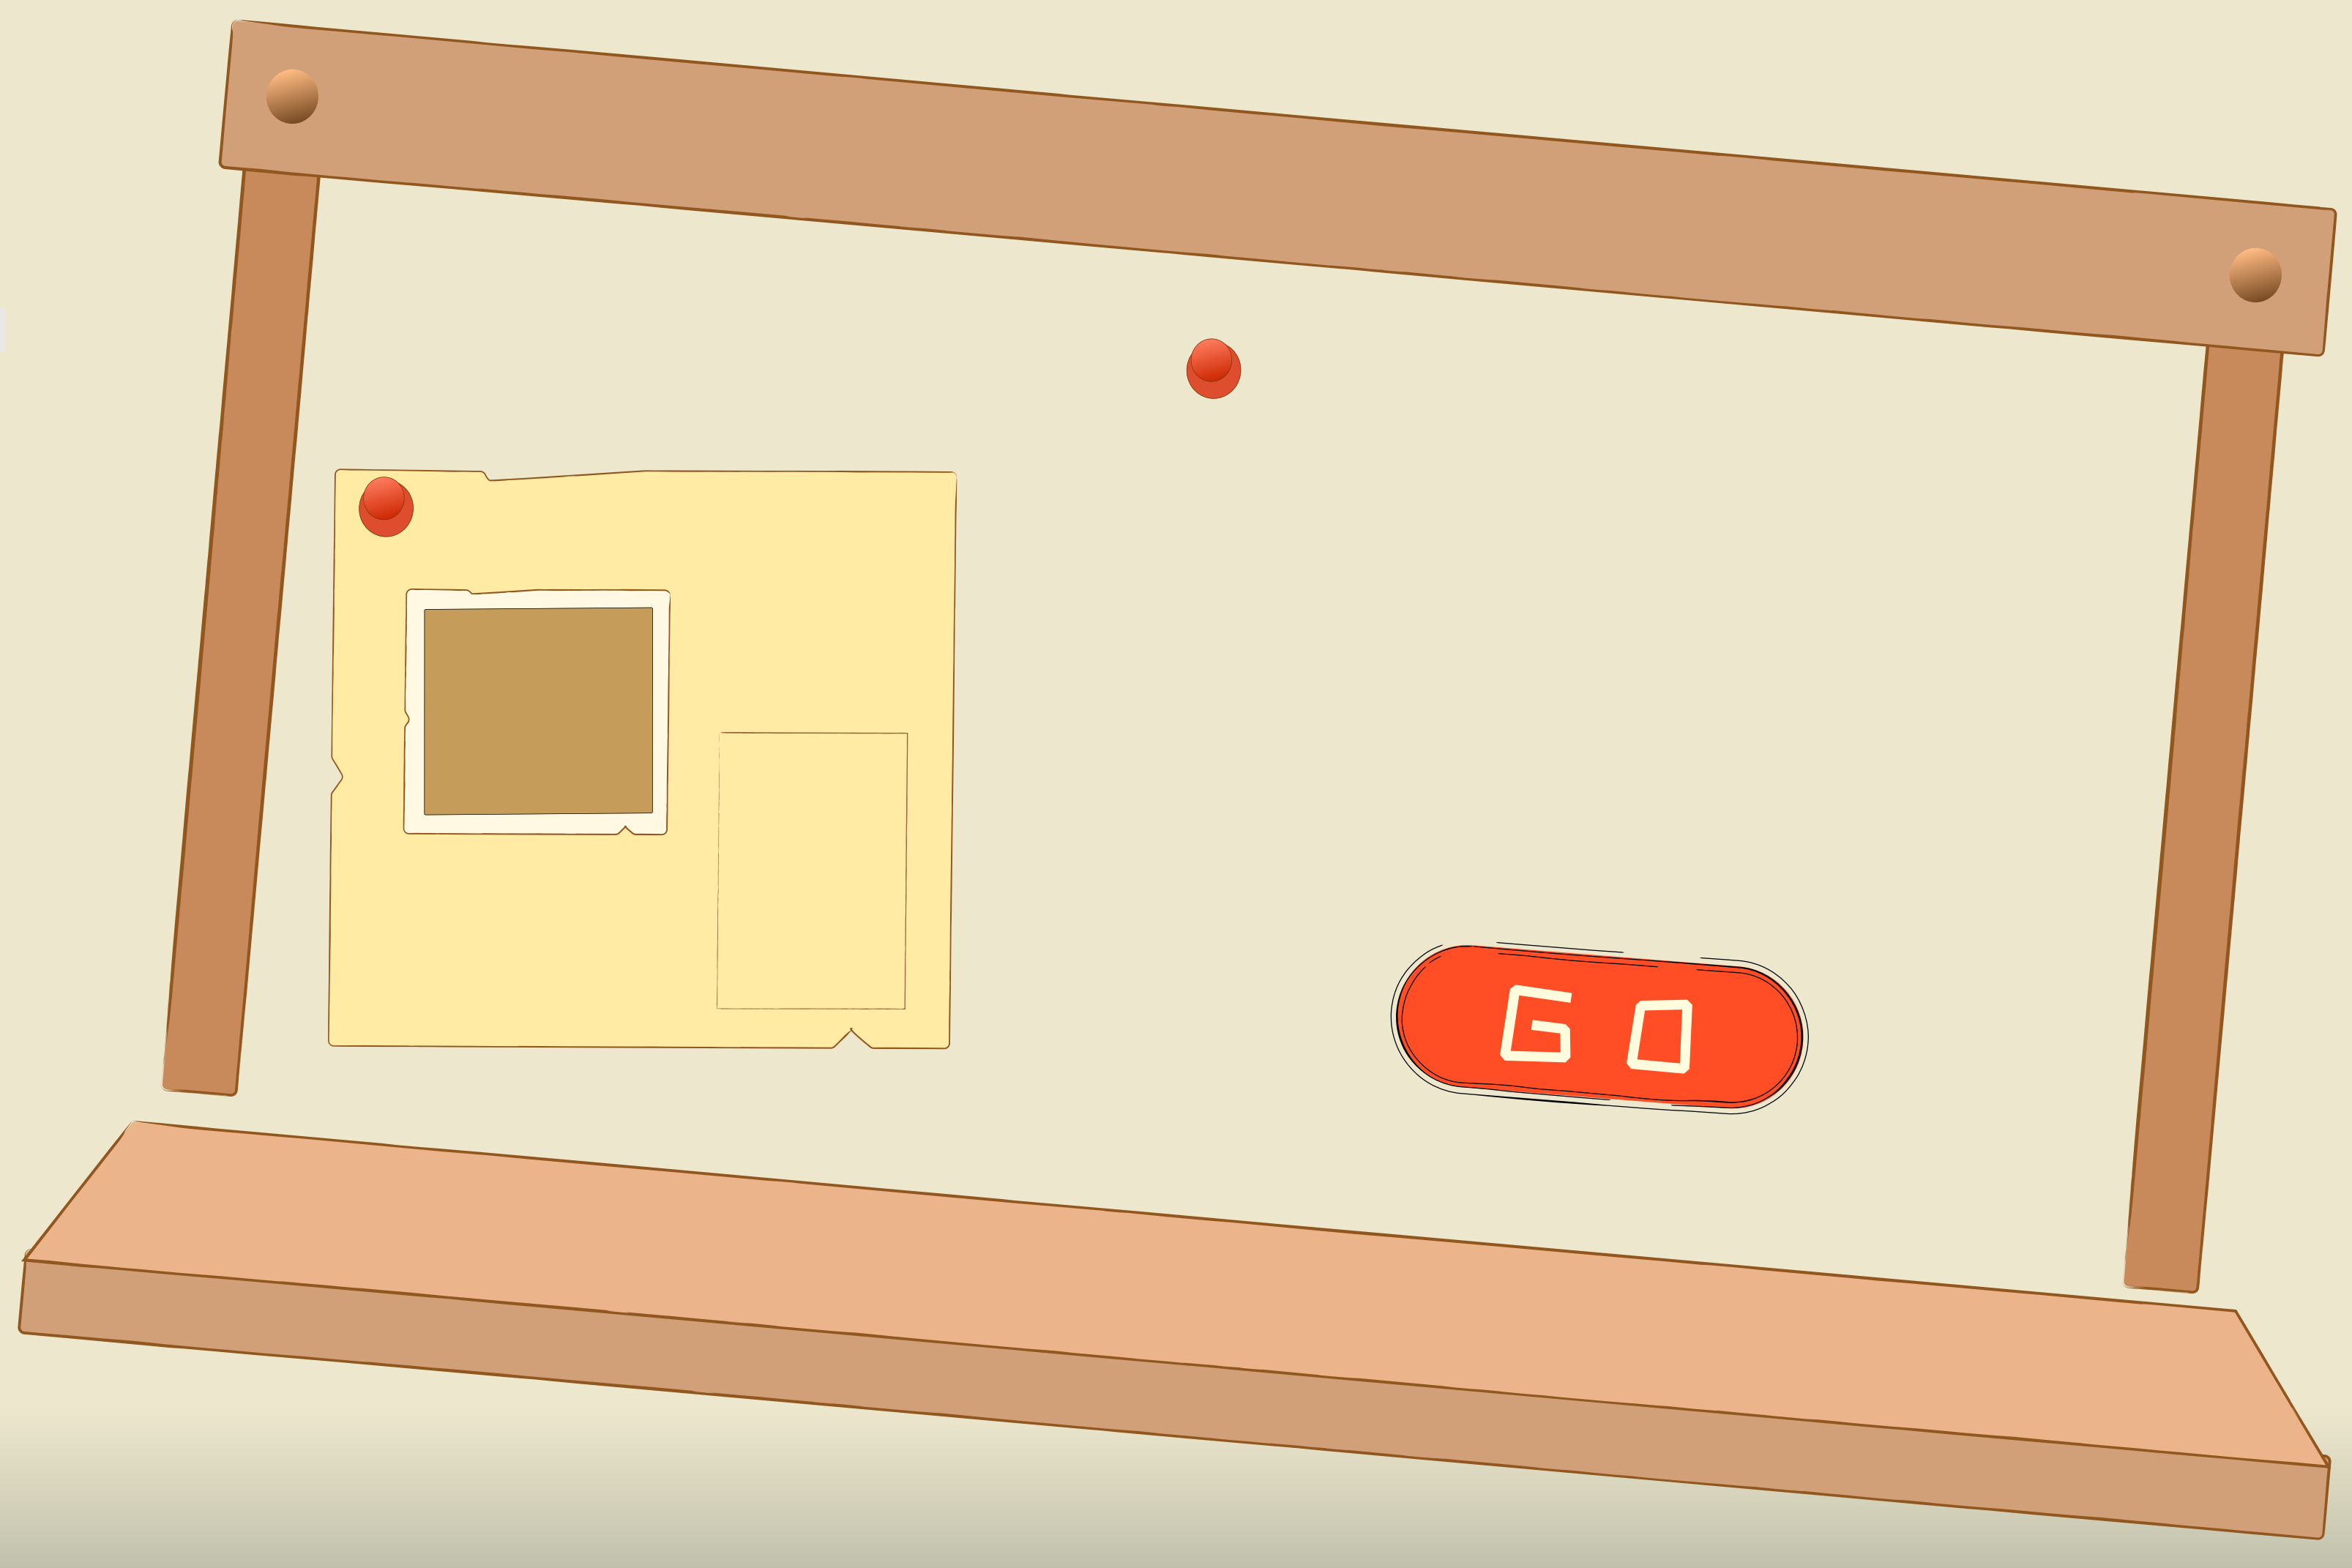
Butterfly Collector

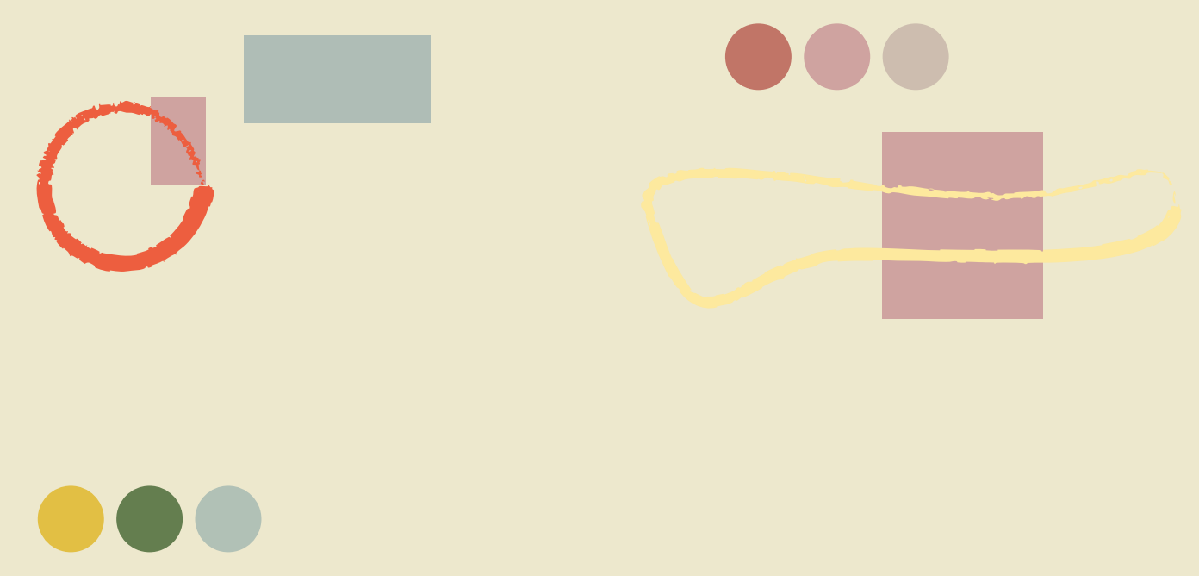
https://youtu.be/6-wTIpJ5luw?si=2ewAQ0jStYwerI2e

This popular science mini-game allows players to learn about butterfly rearing, specimen making and butterfly habitats through gameplay.



Team Project(Team of 3) · Popular Science Game & Interactive Media · 2024—2025　Role: Interactive process and animation design, UI, hand-painted asset creation

---



Mood Board

Extract vintage and natural textures to build the visual tone of The Butterfly Collector.

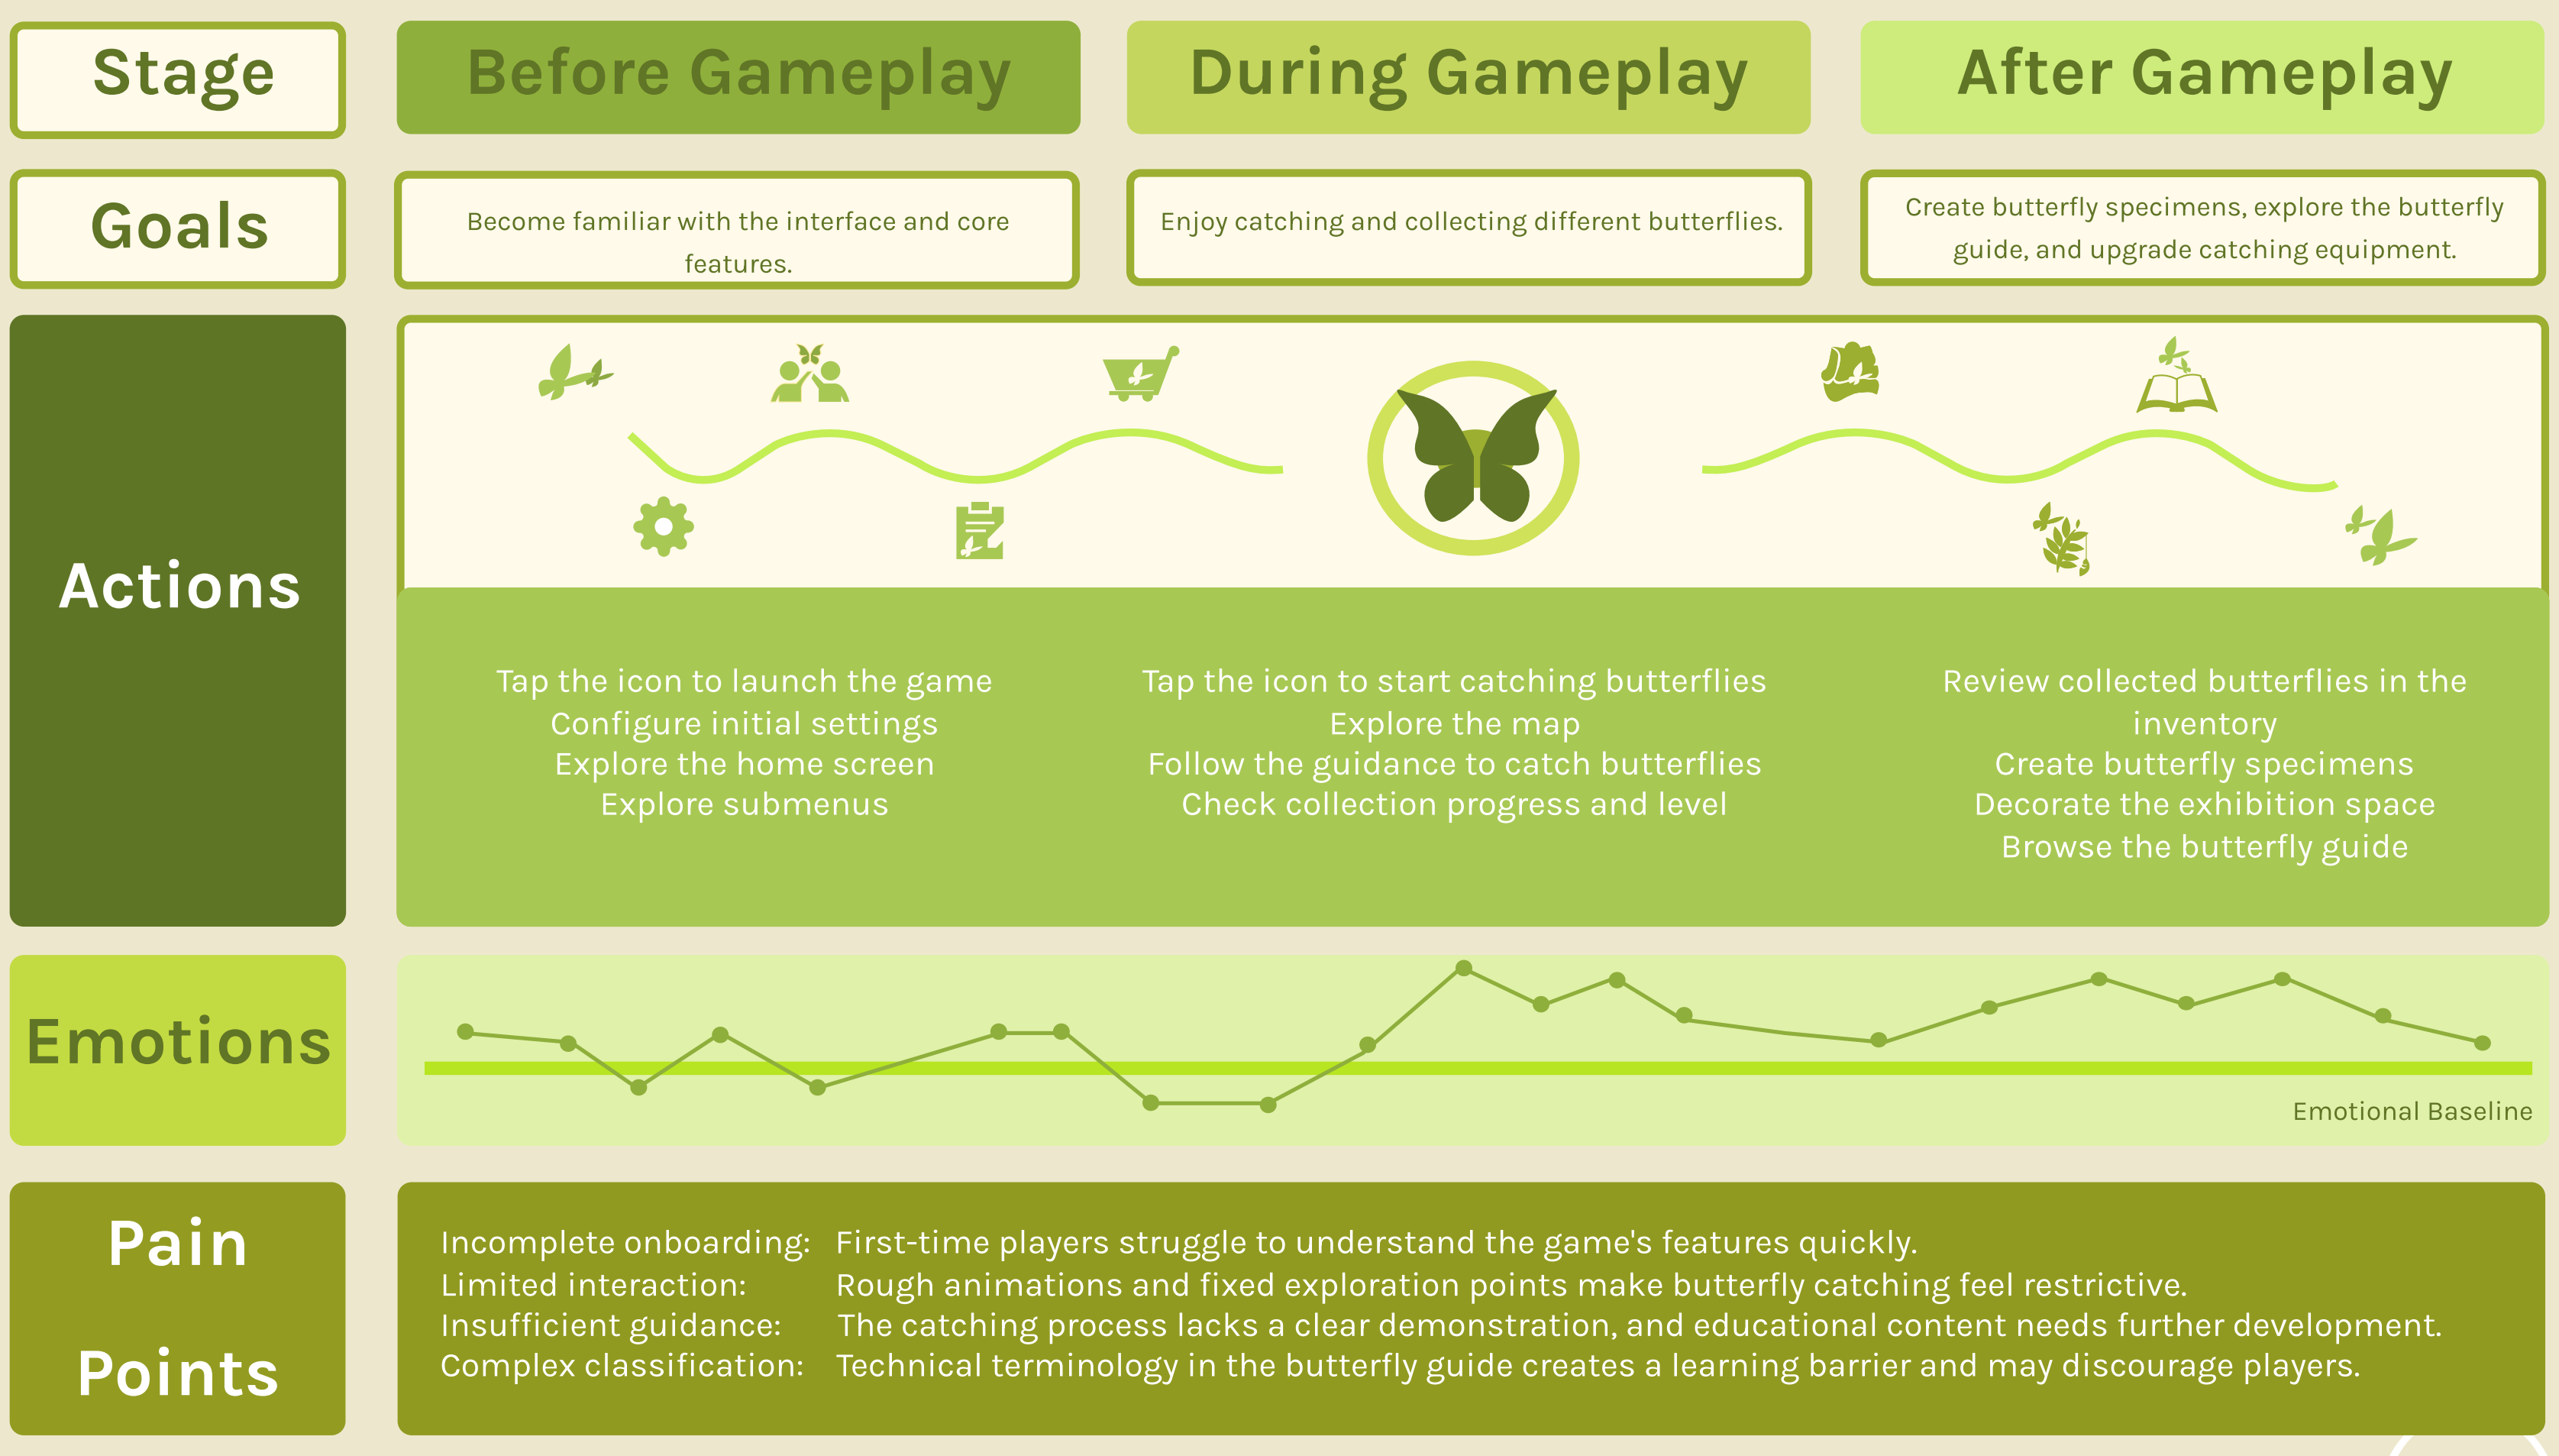
Project
01
02
03
04

User Research

Children (8–10):
Playful exploration, simple guidance, and rewards.

Nature Enthusiasts (18–35):
Accurate butterfly facts and realistic observation.

Parents (30–45):
Safe learning and shared parent-child activities.



Stage	Before Gameplay	During Gameplay	After Gameplay
Goals	Become familiar with the interface and core features.	Enjoy catching and collecting different butterflies.	Create butterfly specimens, explore the butterfly guide, and upgrade catching equipment.
Actions	Tap the icon to launch the game Configure initial settings Explore the home screen Explore submenus	Tap the icon to start catching butterflies Explore the map Follow the guidance to catch butterflies Check collection progress and level	Review collected butterflies in the inventory Create butterfly specimens Decorate the exhibition space Browse the butterfly guide

Pain Points

Incomplete onboarding:	First-time players struggle to understand the game's features quickly.
Limited interaction:	Rough animations and fixed exploration points make butterfly catching feel restrictive.
Insufficient guidance:	The catching process lacks a clear demonstration, and educational content needs further development.
Complex classification:	Technical terminology in the butterfly guide creates a learning barrier and may discourage players.

Project
01
02
03
04

①

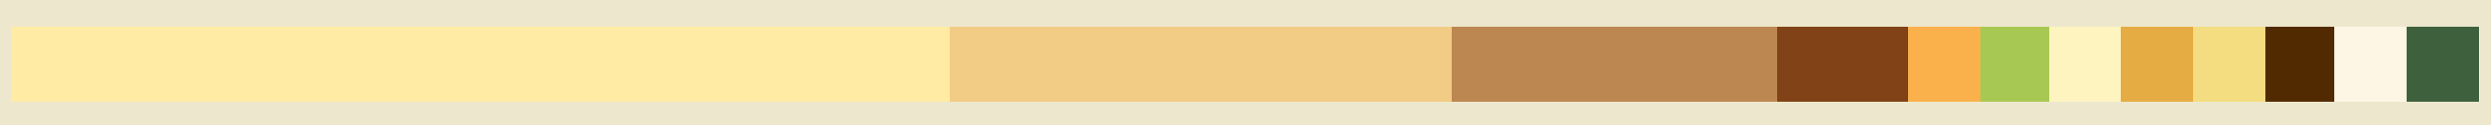
②

③

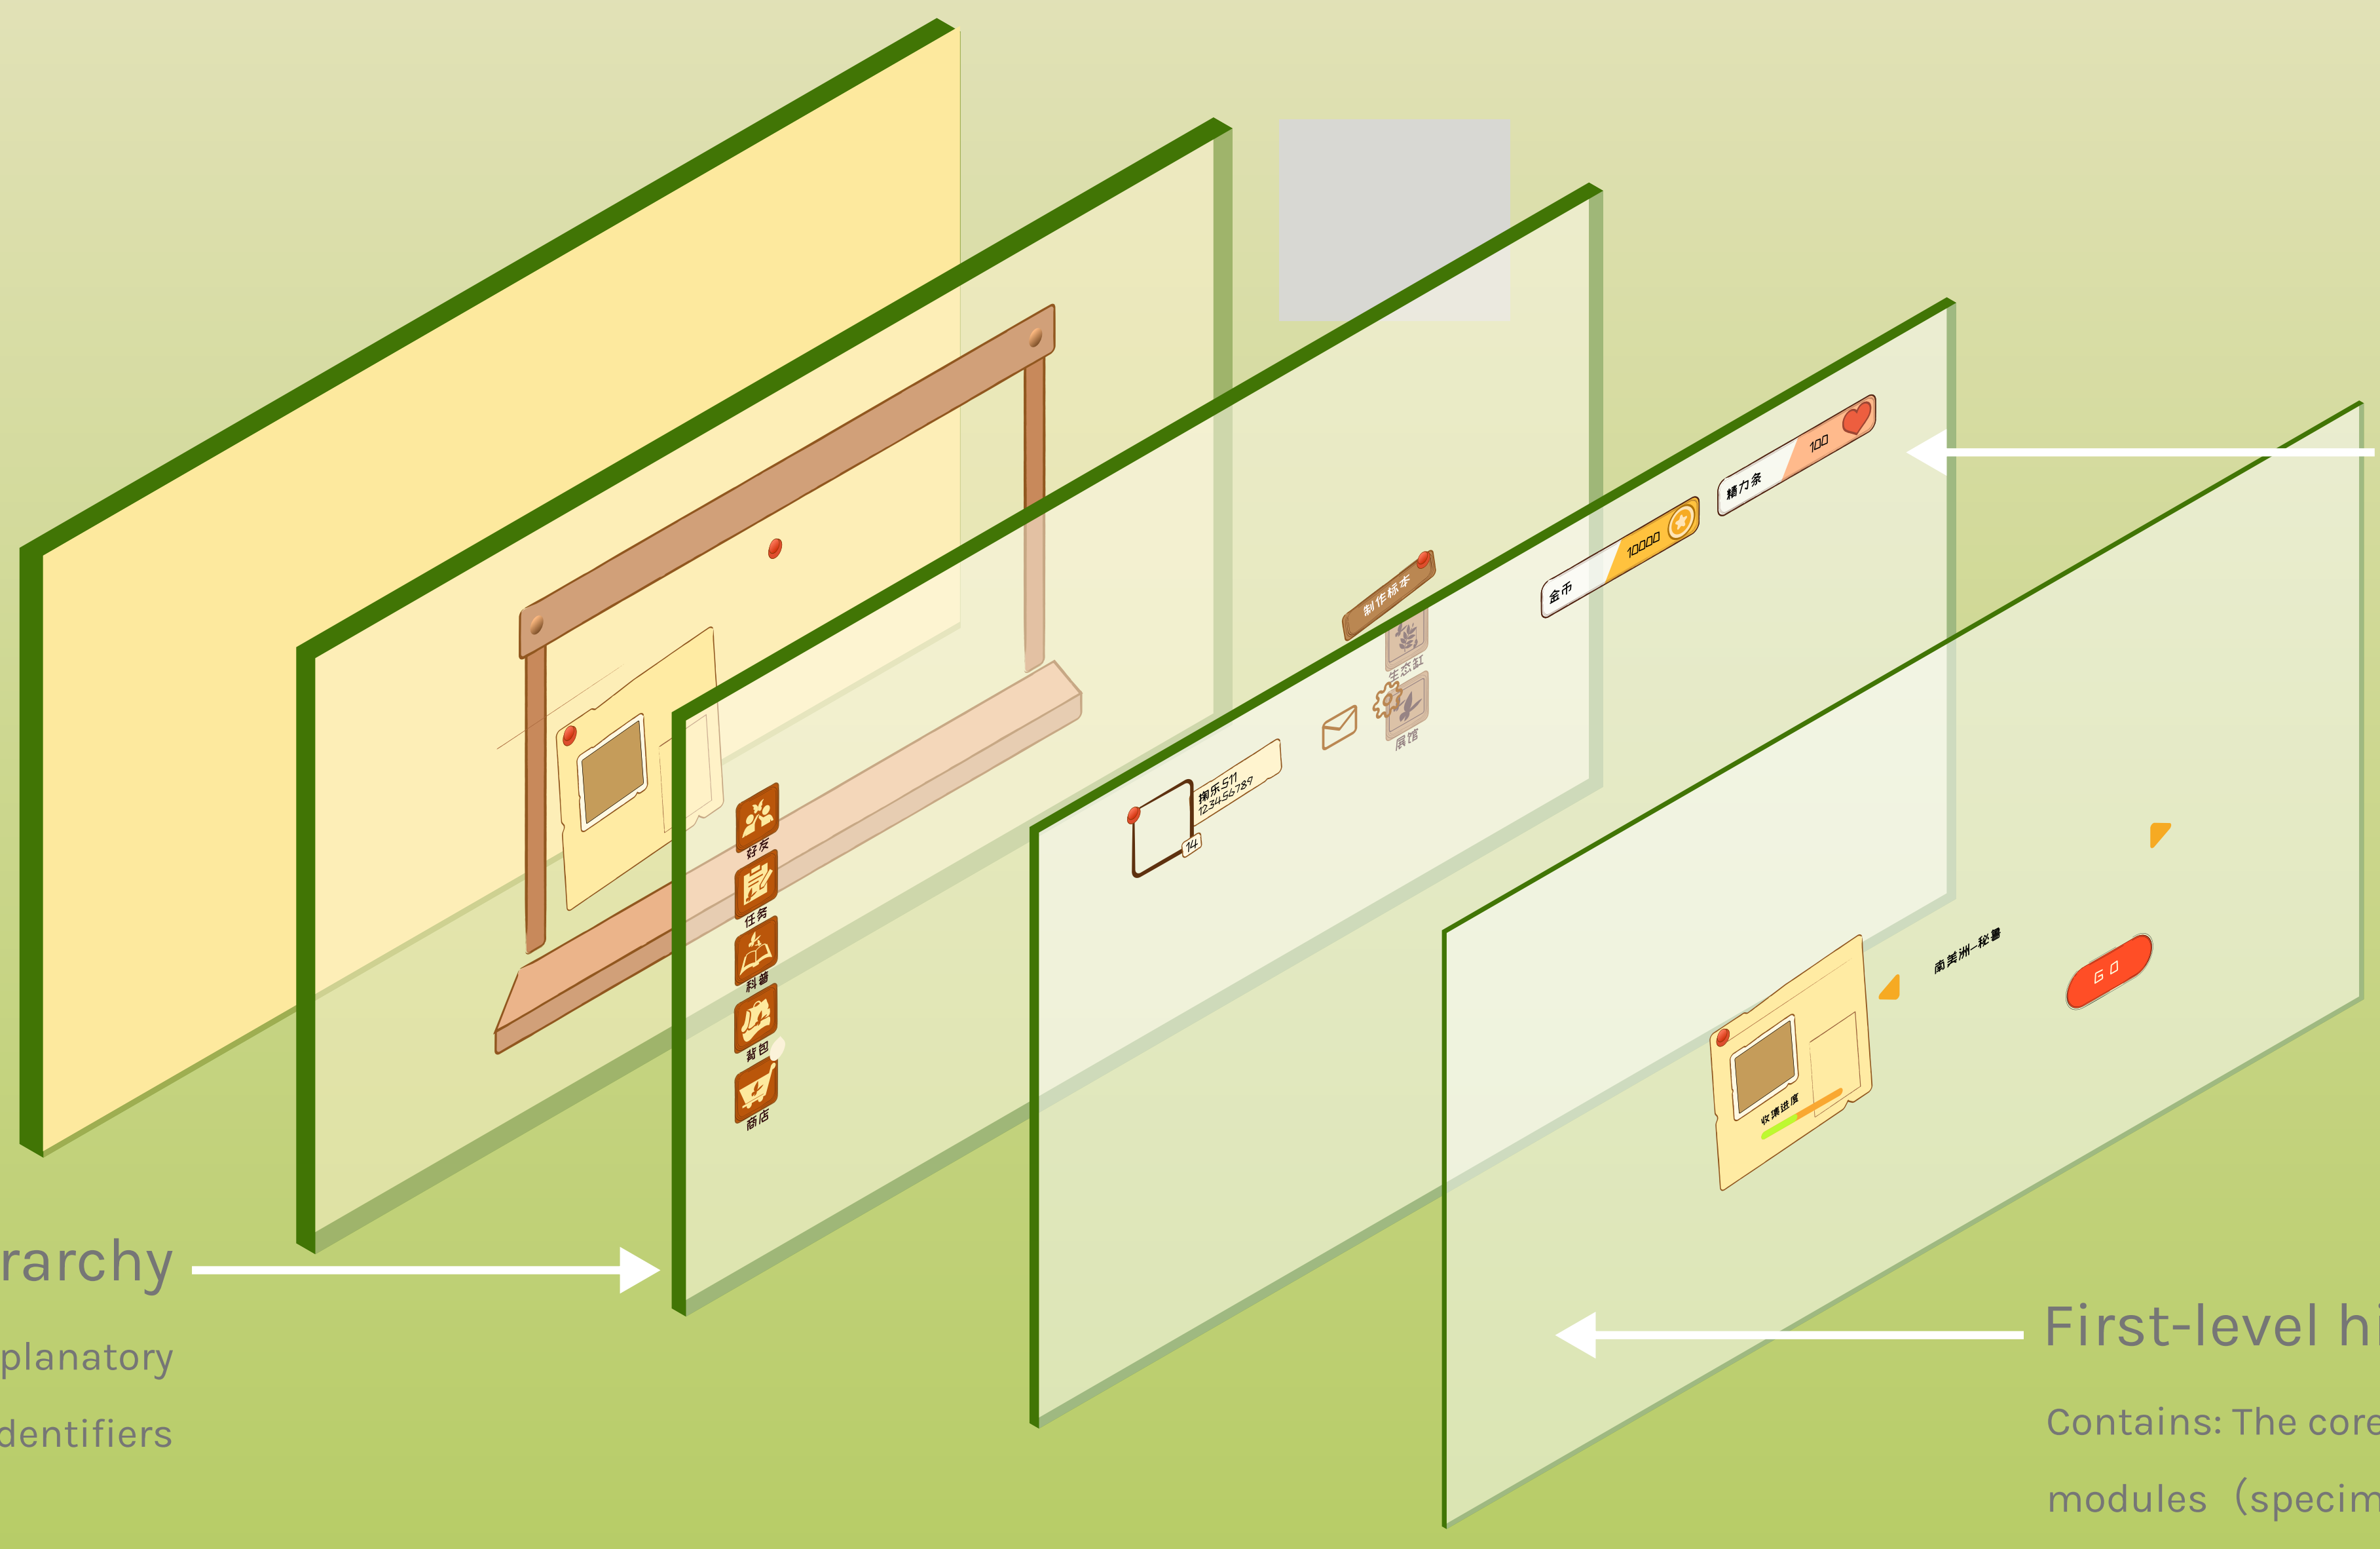
Main Interface Iteration Design

V1: Inconsistent visual style across the interface
V2: Lack of gameplay fun and engagement
V3: Refined UI design for a cohesive visual layout with clearer, more intuitive functional zoning

Map display



Project
01
02
03
04



Second-level hierarchy
Contains:functional classification tags, subheadings within modules

Thrid-level hierarchy
Contains: auxiliary explanatory text, status identifiers

First-level hierarchy
Contains: The core functional modules（specimen making area， map exploration area） main operation area